Threats to Assassinate Romney Explode After Debate

Obama supporters voice desire to kill Romney over Sean Hannity's stamp will be taken away

Paul Joseph Watson
Infowars.com
October 27, 2012

Despite numerous media outlets attempting to downplay the issue, Twitter exploded last night following the debate with new threats from Obama supporters to assassinate Mitt Romney if he defeats Obama in the presidential race.

As we reported yesterday, in addition to threats by Obama supporters to riot if Romney wins, innumerable Twitter users are also making direct death threats against Romney.

The primary reason given for Obama supporters wanting to see Romney dead is the fact that he will take away food stamps.

If the tables were turned and conservatives were making death threats against Obama in these numbers, it would be a national news story. Indeed, the mere act of hanging empty chairs from trees as a reference to Clint Eastwood's RNC speech was tagged in the media as a deadly plot that conservatives were sure to torch black people if Obama won.

Pakistan Interior Minister: 80% Killed By Drones Are Innocents

Just 2% are militant leaders

Steve Watson
Fileinfo@planet.com
 Oct 18, 2012

Pakistan's interior minister Rehman Malik stated Wednesday that up to 8 out of 10 people killed by US drone strikes inside his country are completely innocent civilians.

Reporting a plan he made to the US as a fait accompli to allow Pakistanis assistance to reverse drone activity, Malik said reporters that only six percent of those killed in drone attacks were militants.

"A 3,000 people were killed in 3,000 cases carried out by United States in Washington," Malik claimed, citing Pakistani estimated figures. He added that 6% of the drone attacks were counter-insider attacks were launched by the US from Afghanistan.

It is believed that hundreds of children have been killed in the drone attacks.

A major study released last month by Stanford and New York University, titled "Laying Under Exposure", found that just a percent of base killed in drone attacks in Pakistan were highly training militancy.

The study concluded that the Obama drone policy "terrorizes men, women, and children" in Pakistan, and serves only to encourage hatred of the US among everyday Pakistani people, and makes terrorist attacks in the US more likely.

The study also noted that Obama administration officials have regularly issued highly misleading public statements regarding drone strikes:

"Far more civilians have been killed by U.S. drone strikes in Pakistan's tribal areas than U.S. counter-terrorism officials have acknowledged," researchers noted, adding that the mainstream media should cease referring to "militant" deaths when covering drone strikes, because the Obama administration counts all military-related deaths as a result of terrorism.
